

Human Rights, Social Justice and Canadian Complicity with Torture
Criminology and Human Rights Symposium March 21 and 22
Holy Cross House Conference Room

March 21

Faculty and Student Presentations on Human Rights and Issues of Social Justice of interest to Canadians

9:00-10:20

Josephine Savarese – documentary film "This is Us: Voices From the Street" with discussion and commentary afterward.

10:30-11:20

Ryan Baxter, "Slave Trade, Colonialism and African Economic Performance"

11:30-12:20

Deborah K. van den Hoonaard and Will C. van den Hoonaard, "The Bahá'í Institute for Higher Education: A Creative Response to the Denial of Education to a Religious Minority in Iran."

12:30-1:20

Lunch Break

1:30–2:20

Maria K. Powell "A Stroll in Her Shoes: Protecting the Rights of Sex Trade Workers"

2:30–3:20

Heather Richmond's Human Rights Class Poster Project

March 22

Canadian Complicity With Torture

8:15

Opening the President Dawn Russell

8:30-9:50

Alex Neve, "Clean Hands: A Review of Canadian Complicity in Torture Abroad"

10:00-11:20

Alan Clarke, "How Canada Aids and Abets the U.S. Torture Culture"

12:00 -1:00

Lunch

1:00-2:20

Lorne Waldman, "Can We Protect National Security Without Being Complicit in Torture"

2:30-3:50

Paul Champ, "Afghanistan Detainees: Canada Turns a Blind Eye to Torture"

Closing Remarks